Notes

These Chinese lunches in London are proving very popular and it may well be that in future the Committee might have to impose a cap on the numbers attending. The numbers attending have sometimes elicited complaints about seating. You can help preclude this by bearing in mind the following -

- (i) If you invite guests, you must arrive early so you can reserve sufficient places for your group on the table of your choice. I shall be too busy to have to act as an usher or minder for your guests;
- (ii) If you are using the lunch to celebrate a reunion or similar event and require a whole table for your party let me know in advance. I will then reserve a table for you;
- (iii) If you are visiting the UK on leave/holiday and intend to be at the lunch, let me know in advance and I will ensure you are allocated seating in the main dining area; and
- (iv) Please do not arrive at the restaurant before 1230 as to do so interrupts the staff having their lunch.
