

Rules of the Royal Hong Kong Police Association

1. TITLE

The Association shall be known as the Royal Hong Kong Police Association, hereinafter referred to as the “Association”.

2. OBJECTS

- (i) To perpetuate friendships formed through service or association with the Royal Hong Kong Police Force, and to act in the mutual interest of Members.
- (ii) To raise, maintain and administer a Welfare Fund for the benefit of Members and the Widows of Members.
- (iii) To fund and maintain such projects and memorials as may be appropriate.

3. MEMBERSHIP

- (i) There are two categories of Membership, Life and Associate.
- (ii) Life membership is open to officers serving in or retired from the Royal Hong Kong Police or Hong Kong Police and to their sons and daughters over the age of eighteen years of age. Life membership will only be offered to officers who were confirmed to the permanent and pensionable establishment or who successfully completed one tour of service on contract.
- (iii) Associate Membership is open to (a) spouses of deceased members, (b) former Royal Hong Kong Police or Hong Kong Police officers who passed out the Police Training School but did not complete their first tour of service and (c) persons who have had such association with that Force or who had such service with the Government of Hong Kong as to warrant the committee approving their application for membership. As such, Associate members will have no power to vote. However, spouses of deceased members will not be precluded from full membership if they so desire.
- (iv) All applications for membership shall be approved by the Committee.
- (v) Any applicant feeling aggrieved at being refused membership by the Committee may appeal in writing through the Secretary, to the next General Meeting where any decision then made will be final.
- (vi) The Committee may at their discretion require the resignation of, or expel any Member who in their opinion is unfit to remain a member.
- (vii) Any Member dealt with under Sub-Section (v) above may appeal in writing and through the Secretary to the next General Meeting for reinstatement and the decision taken at that meeting will be final.

- (viii) Upon the recommendation of the Committee and with the approval of the majority of Members present at a General Meeting, a Member may be granted honorary life membership.
